Remark Really More Than Suffering Street Car Passenger Could Stand Without Complaint.

At either end of a seat in a Broadway open car was an individual, the one at the far end smoking a very bad cigarette. Midway between these two sat something very fat. Not only was it very fat, but its hat was fat with feathers, its fingers were fat with many jeweled rings, its neck was fat with beads and its corsage was superfatted with chains, lorgneites, vanity (!) boxes and falls of lace. It was in fact so fat and so accurately placed in the exact center of the seat that between it and the vo individuals at the ends there was not room for the thinnest of passengers to right or left. The car stopped to take on a small person in a bee-hive hat, just from chearsal. She wriggled, pried and shoved, but got no further than halfway back in the seat. Then she swept the cigarette gentleman with a scathing glance. "Kindly move over," said she to him with considerable acidity.

The gentleman had paid no attention to her shovings and wrigglings, since he was too tightly jammed against the rail to have them matter one way or the other. But this was too much. He slowly turned and looked at her, pressing his lips togethor on one side to hold the cigarette in safety. Then he growled: . Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weekness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

Repeating Shotguns The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U.S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun-buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it-that's the Winchester.

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription It Makes Weak Women Strong,

Sick Women Well. It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abborrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 onecent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps.
